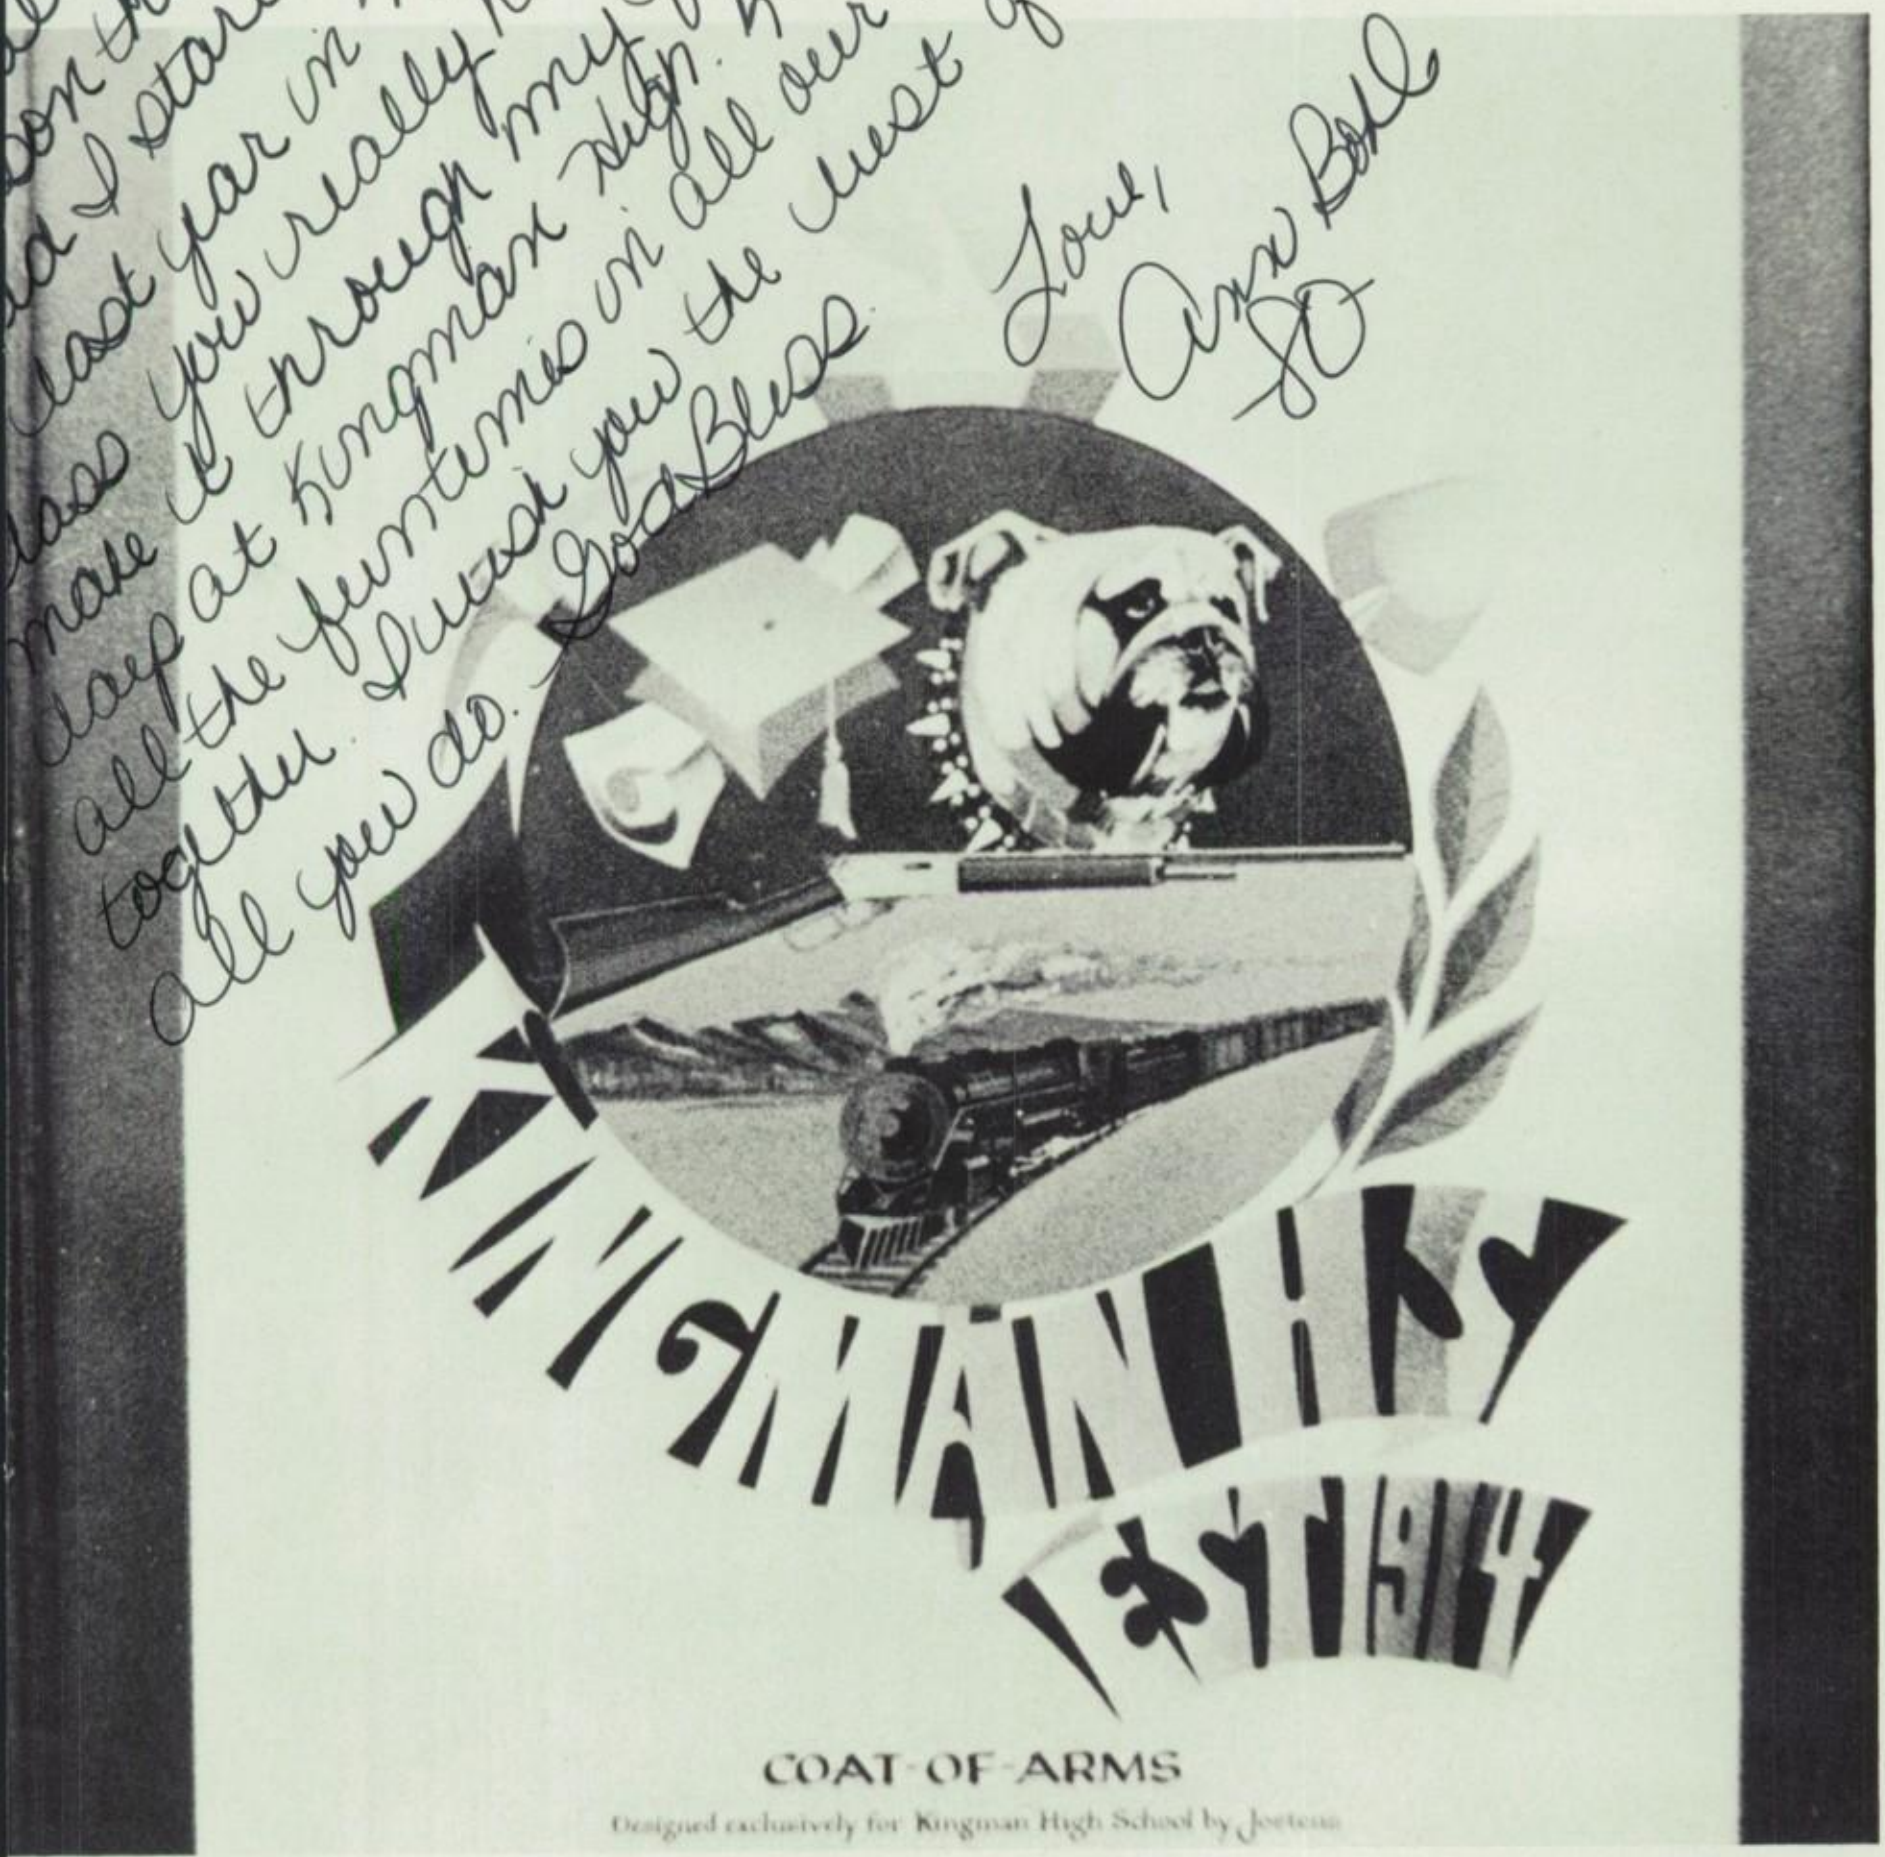
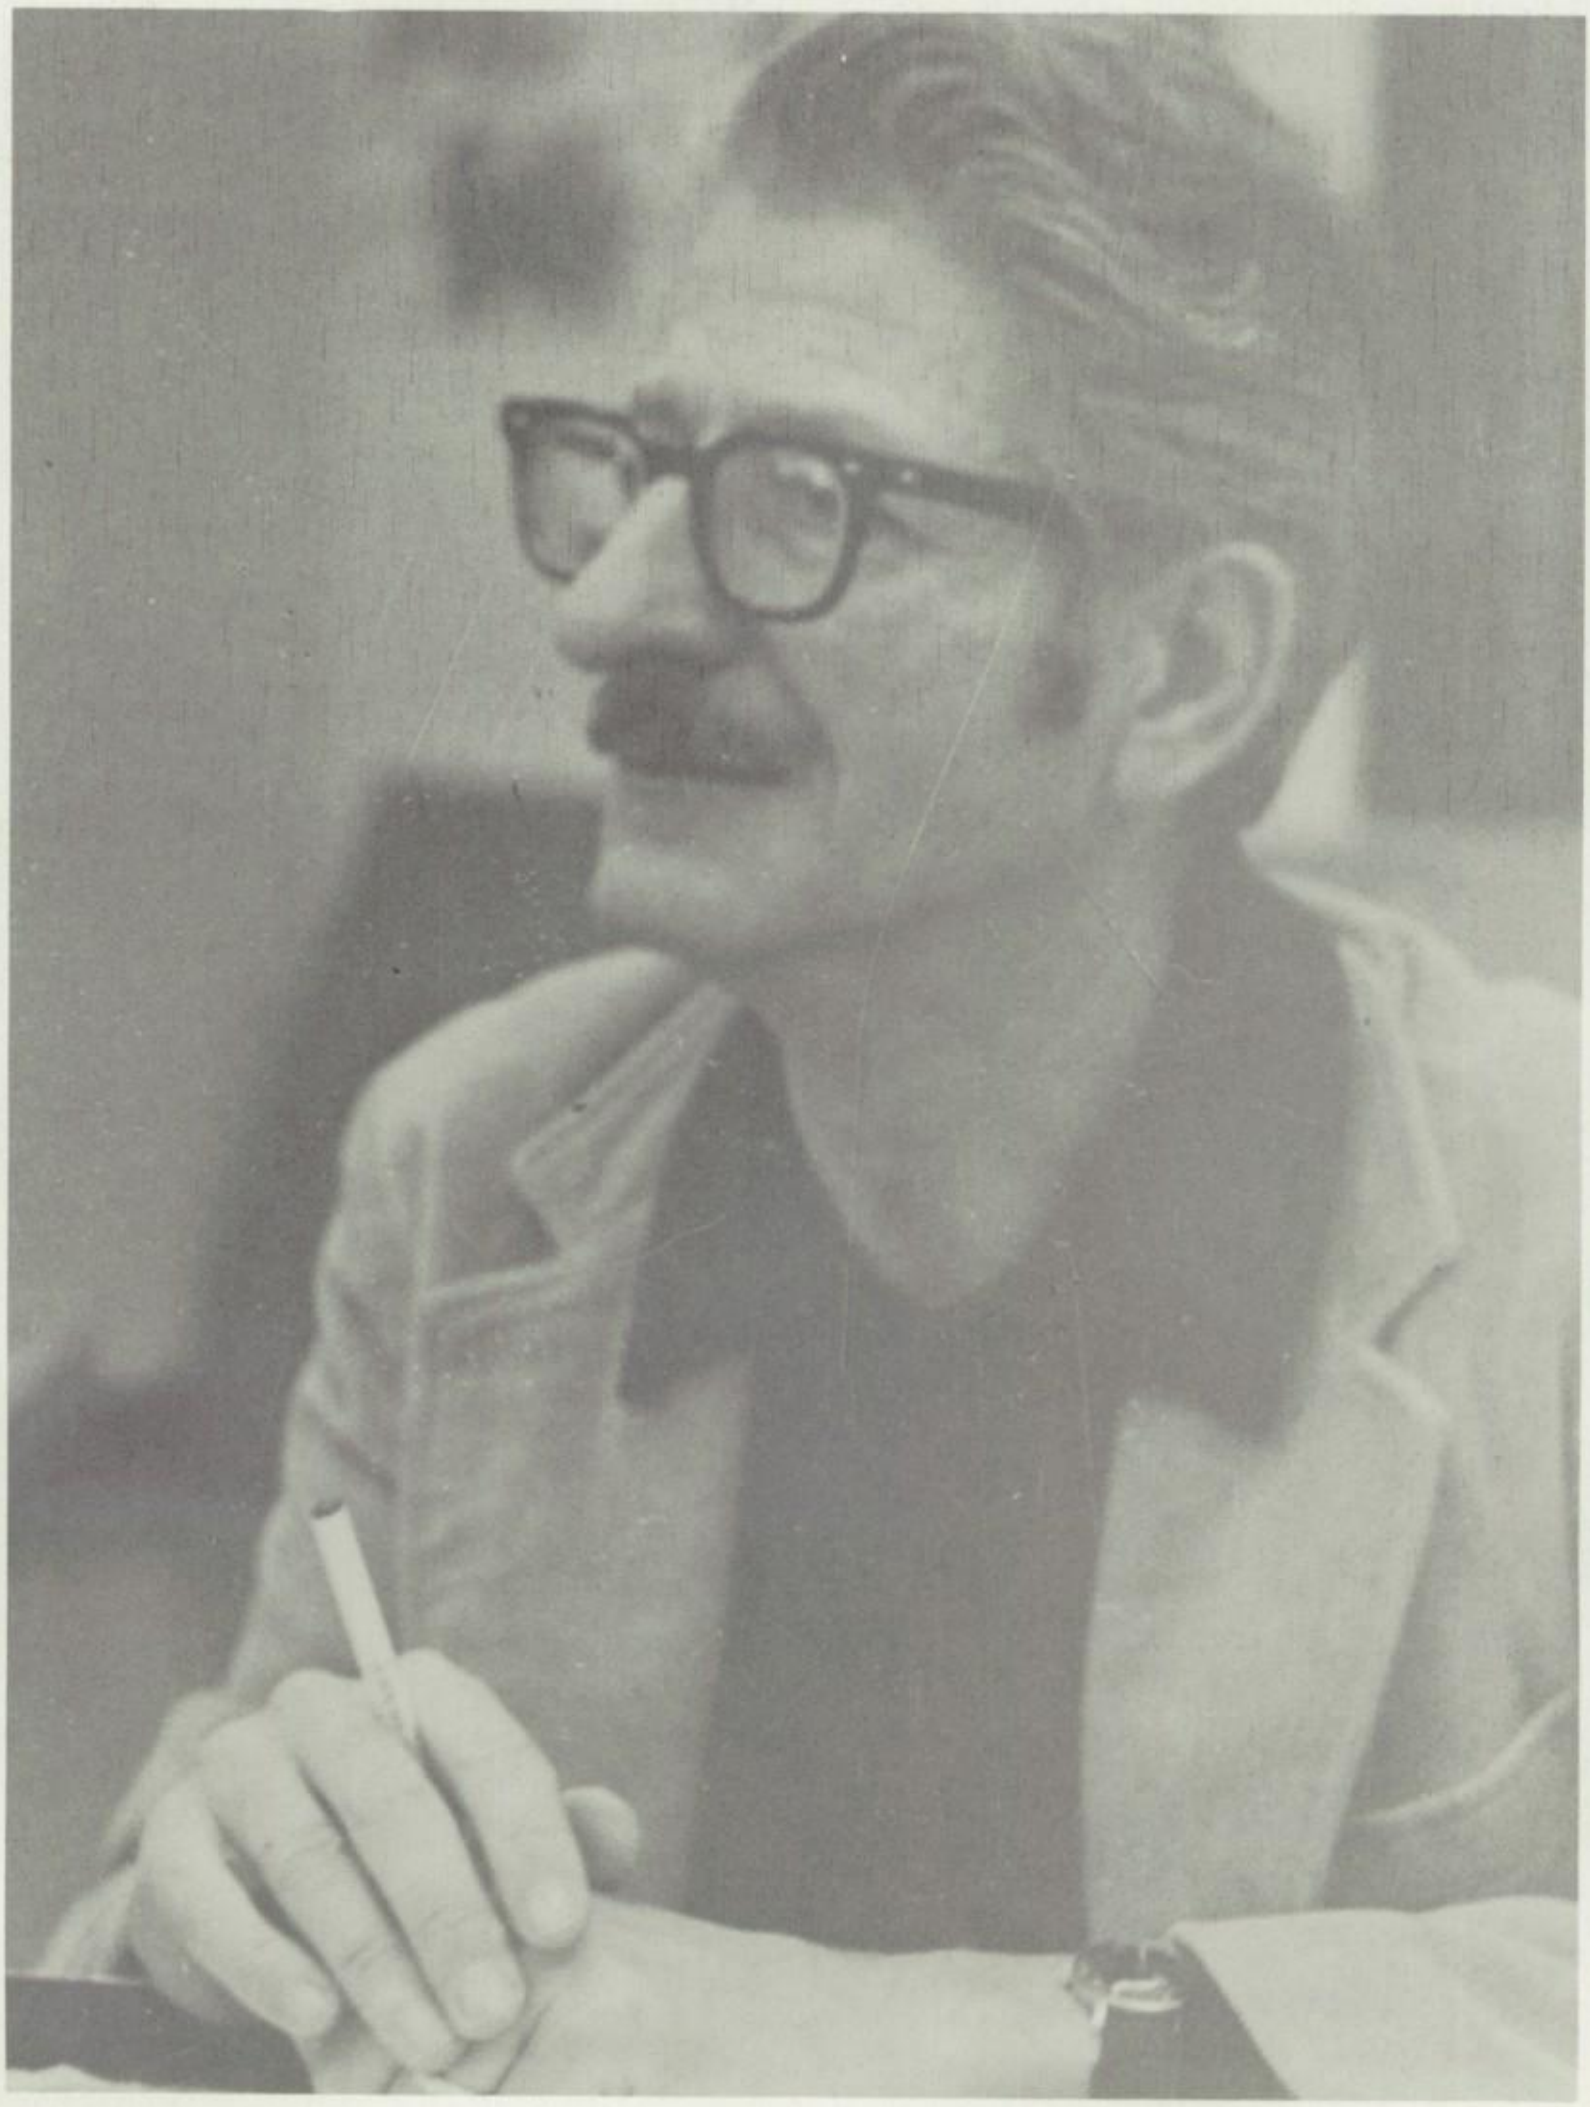
Another Beginning

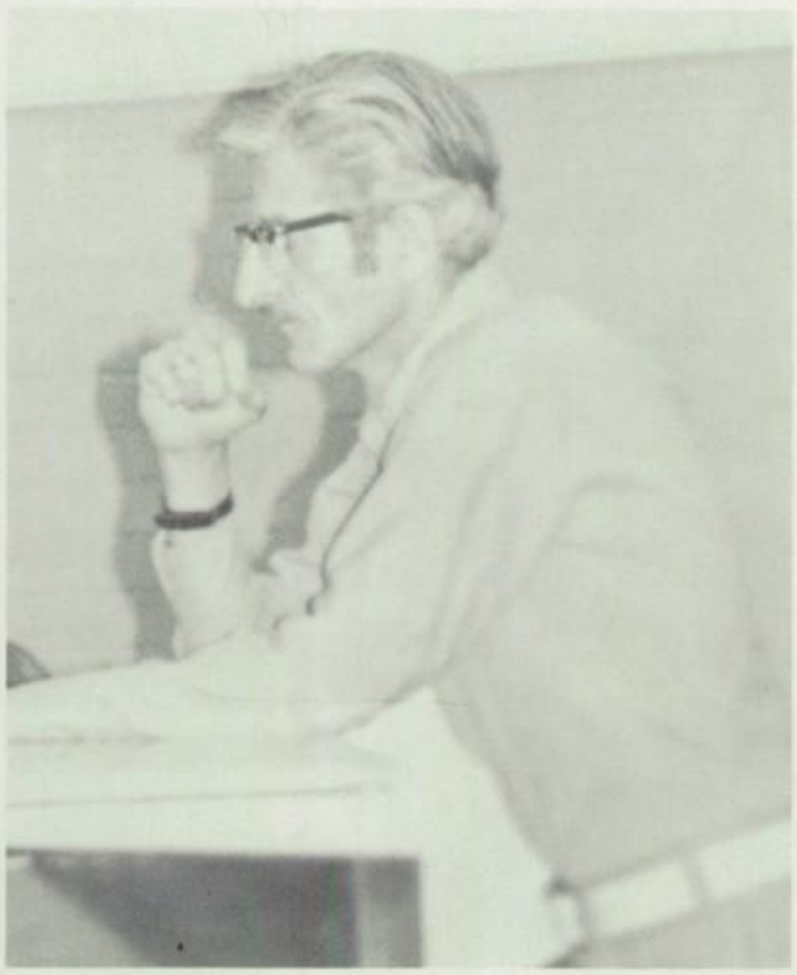


The 1979-80 school year brought many new things to Kingman High School. Ten new teachers, a new school addition, and a new school emblem. This shows the appropriatness of the 1980 annual theme, "Another Beginning."

Tribute To Stan Gould



Mr. Gould was born on February 6, 1924, in Winfield, Kansas. He grew up in that area and went on to Southwestern College where he recieved a Bachelor's degree in Music in 1948. Then he attended the University of Arizona where he gained a Master's degree in Music in 1962.



He taught school at Elkhart High in Elkhart, Kansas, and Humbolt High in Humbolt, Kansas, before coming to Kingman where he taught at Kingman High for 20 years.

Mr. Gould loved his work very much, and has put on such production numbers as: My Fair Lady, Brigadoon, Oklahoma, and You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown.

The students here loved and respected you, Stan Gould, we will always remember your faithfulness, and it is to you this book is dedicated

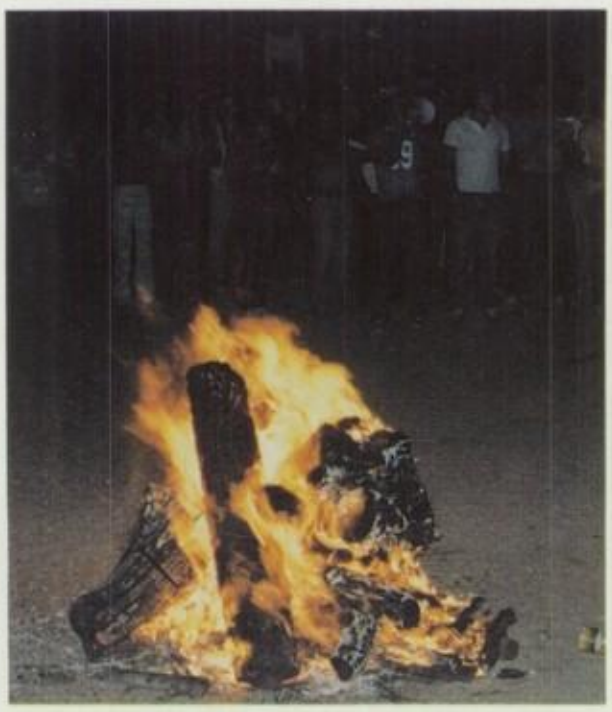
The Torch Is Lit

Mark Olivas and Greg Cummins start off one of Kingmans most successful Homecomings in years, with the burning of the Tolleson Wolverine.



The Band helped raise crowd to a tumultous pitch which raised the spirit. Below, Joe Dorner along with Greg Cummins and Candy Sears lead the seniors in a rousing class cheer as the Bonfire ended and the Homecoming festivities began.

As The Hour Grows Near

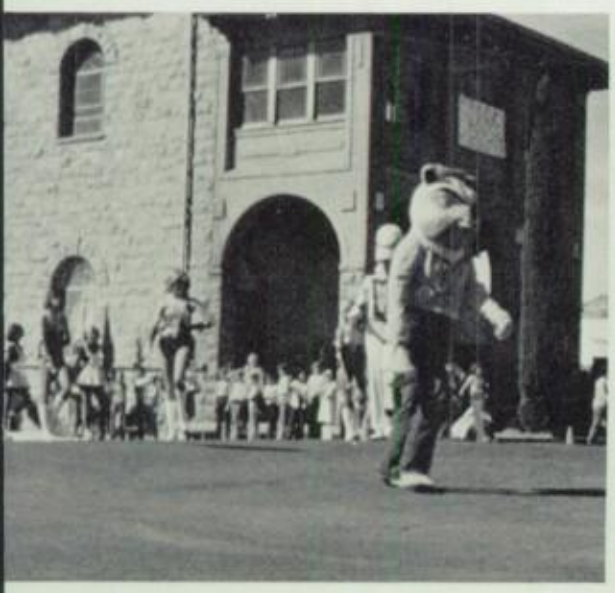
As the Bonfire slowly died people drifted off to work on their floats. Below, Harlan Powskey, John Byram, and Chuck Casson put their minds together in an effort to get the float painted.

All over town classes and clubs searched for space to build their floats. Above, Lisa Wickland puts the finishing touches on the Junior float as Mr. Marzley and Mr. Cunningham help the sophomores at the Armory with their effort.

Spirit Was The

Above: For the past several years IMPACT has sponsored a window decorating competition which has become a very popular tradition at homecoming. This year over 20 windows were painted. Right: The homecoming parade started in the halls this year and the band marched through the halls of the days festivities.

Order Of The Day



The Parade was led by the Bulldog Mascot, followed by the team bus, and any other mode of transportation that would carry the Bulldog spirited fans, even a boat out of water.

The Coronation Of A

Pregame and half time festivities filled the stadium. As the players entered the field they were greeted by a spirit line which stretched across the field. At the end of the half, the band and the pom pons took over the field and treated the crowd to several different formations ending with the spelling of KHS.

Homecoming Queen

The moment that everyone had been waiting for came when the five candidates were escorted to the center of the field for the coronation of the Queen. As the crowd held their breath Beth Mankowski was announced the Homecoming Queen of 1979. She was crowned by a former Queen Mrs. Molly Casson.

The Queen And Her Court

Five young ladies were chosen to vie for Homecoming Queen. TL, Queen Beth Mankowski, TR, Krista Cox, ML, Sonoma Van Brunt, MR, Lorna Duey and bottom Sue Molin.

Football Is What It Was All About

The exciting game brought the fans to their feet time after time.

Eric Martin makes another of his drive sustaining catches.

Mark Olivas recieves vital instruction from coaches Fuller and Stipe.

Above, the Bulldog Defense, closes in to stop another Tolleson rushing play. Left, Bobby Olivas fades back to pass with excellent protection.

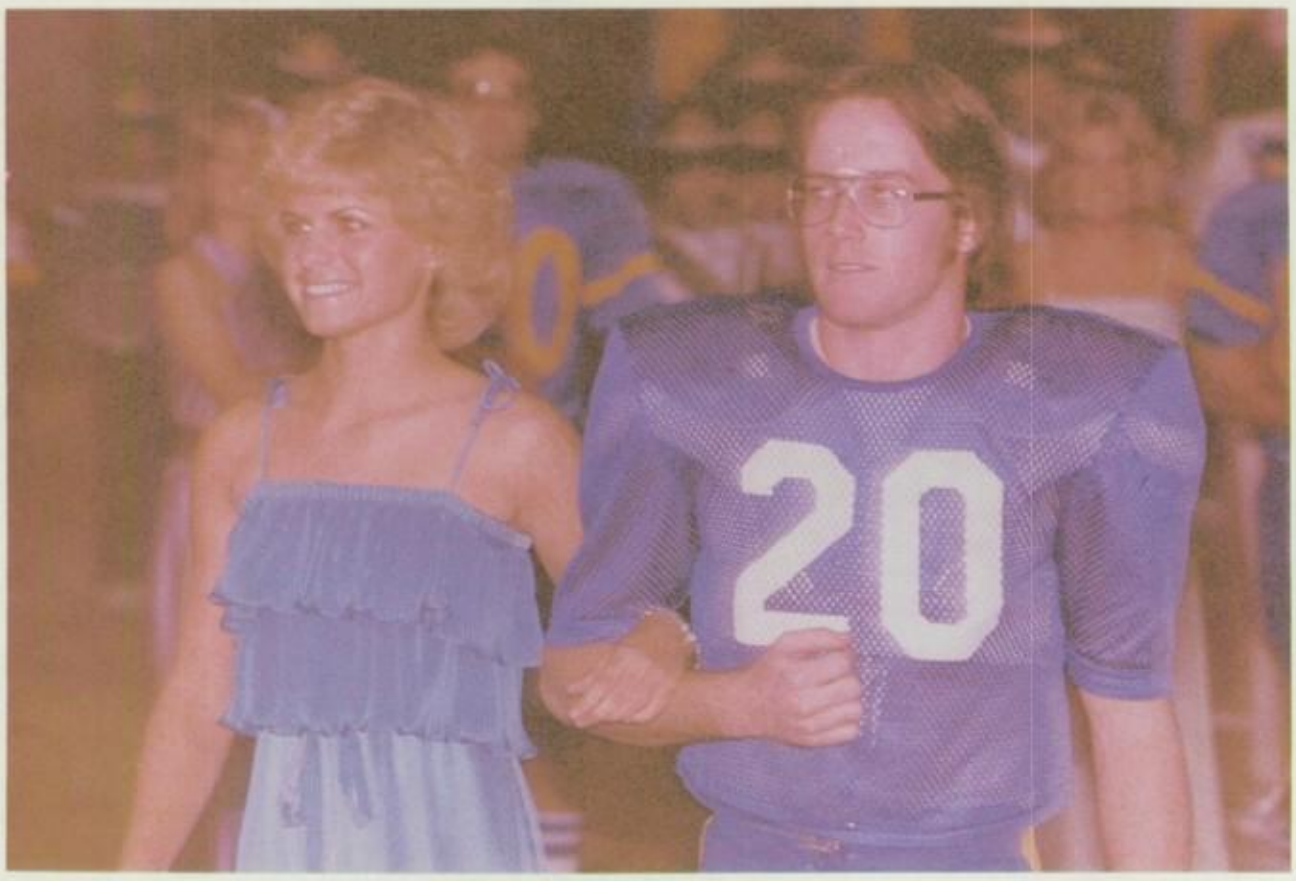
The Thrill Of Victory

The thrill of victory

From the beginning everyone knew that this game would be one of the toughest of the year. The previous year Tolleson had handed the Bulldogs their lone conference defeat. Kingman set out to avenge that defeat and take a big step toward their first undefeated season.

Throughout the game there were many fine plays on both sides and no one breathed a sigh of relief until the final gun was sounded.

For One And For All



Greg Cummins escorts Beth Mankowski to receive her crown.

Former Queen Molly Casson congratulates the 1979 Homecoming Queen.

This year a touch of class was added to the homecoming events as the Queen was chauffered in a Rolls-Royce to the Homecoming Dance.

"Were No 1", a constant chant of Kingman High School Varsity Football fans all year.

With a record of 9 wins, 2 loses, we may not have taken state, but we had the best team yet to pass through K.H.S. And to the students and fans we were definitely, Number One!

Kingmans Varsity Football record of 9 straight wins began with Parker and ended with Peoria. After we beat Peoria almost everyone thought the team would go undefeated for the first time that most could remember. Kingman's luck changed when we were defeated by Cactus in the tenth and final game of the regular season. Although we had lost we still had a shot at the division title, but was over after the first game, being defeated by Gerard, who eventually took State Championship.

When interviewed, most of the players spoke highly of their coach, Dean Honsinger, who was named, Conference Coach of the Year. This was Honsingers second year as head coach, and well deserved this award.

The coaches do have alot to do with the outcome of a game or an entire season, but the ones on the field, and the ones scoring are the players themselves. Kingman had seven members make All-Conference Offense, and seven All-Conference Defensive teams, and one All-State.

Mike Boggio, Mark Olivas, David Huerta, and Paul Martin made All-Conference first string defensive team, with Pat Patterson, Ron Wolsey and Billy Darrow, second string.

Of the seven on All-Conference offense, Mike Beechler, Bob Ferguson, Eric Martin, and Brian Abraham made first string while Greg Cummins and Tom Barthlow on second string.

Mark Olivas was the one All Stater who did a tremendous job all year on defense.

We should be proud of these fourteen individuals but we should be especially proud of each and every player who gave his all for Kingman High School.

Scores of the season for each game appear on page 76.

From top to bottom, left to right Billy Darrow is running down field with one of his great interceptions of the year, also in the next picture Billy is running through the spirit line with a very determined look on his face. Two Bulldogs in this picture are demonstrating their great defense. Eric Martin with a touch down reception. The Bulldogs take care of Flagstaff 21-22. In the last picture coaches from the other team come over and congratulate Coaches Stipe, Olivas and Honsinger on another great Victory.

In my opinion this book is mainly for the seniors; they're the ones in the bright lights. This book is for their graduation year. Let's face it, 1980 will never come again. But let it be known, your successors will try and keep up the traditions, try to outdo their predecessors, and of course, become seniors themselves.

By looking through this book a student can remember yesterday, hopefully all the good memories. There were trials and tribulations, but isn't that a part of becoming mature so prolonged adult?

I personally would like to thank the teachers that let us bother them during classes, let students out for various reasons, and for being there to teach us. I would also like to thank each student for making this book possible.

Thank you,

Teri Cramer

Barbara,
Well I have known you for quite some time (4th grade), and we have had our ups and downs through the years. But we made it! Remember all the crazy rap sessions we used to have in Snaips & Edelsons! We were always talking about Sex! Sex! & more sex! It was also nice getting high with you in the girls latrine!
I will always remember you & the crazy times.
Take Care &
God Bless You

I have had a great time in Mr. Wilkerson Class. I had a even greater time talking and reading about sex in class. But the action is much better than the talk. Anyway, have a good summer and stay out of trouble. Thanks for being a friend and I hope to see you again.
Love Always
